The amendment filed 8/26/02 is acknowledged. Claims 25-38 are being considered on the merits. Claims 39-45 are withdrawn from consideration.

Newly submitted claims 39-45 directed to an invention that is independent or distinct from the invention originally claimed for the following reasons:

I. Claims 15-38 drawn to process of inhibiting the growth of microorganisms, classified in Class 435, subclass 192, for example.

V. Claim 39-45 drawn to antimicrobial compositions, classified in Class 424, subclass 94.4, for example

Inventions II and I are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP 806.05(h)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product such as for bleaching cloth or pulp.

Since applicant has received an action on the merits for the originally presented invention, this invention has been constructively elected by original presentation for prosecution on the merits. Accordingly, claims 39-45 are withdrawn from consideration as being directed to a non-elected invention. See 37 CFR 1.142(b) and MPEP § 821.03.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 2 is confusing in that the units of the haloperoxidase concentration is not indicated.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 15-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Allen taken with Winkler and Cantor et al. for the reasons as stated in the last Office action and the further reasons below.

The claims are directed to a method of using a haloperoxidase composition comprising a haloperoxidase, a hydrogen peroxide source, a halide source and an ammonium source to clean, disinfect or inhibit microbial growth on a hard surface.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive.

Applicant argues that none of the cited references alone or in combination teaches or suggests the methods claimed herein. However, Applicant has argued and discussed the references individually without clearly addressing the combined teachings. It must be remembered that the references are relied upon in combination and are not meant to be considered separately as in a vacuum. It is the combination of all of the cited and relied upon references which make up the state of the art with regard to the claimed invention. Applicant's claimed invention fails to patentably distinguish over the state of the art represented by the references.

In the method of Allen haloperoxidase is used in combination with a hydrogen peroxide source, a halide source and an ammonium source to inhibit microbial growth on a surface, for example. As to the required ammonium source, Winkler teaches a process of using the material disclosed by Allen wherein mono-, di- and triethanolamine are suitably added. Even though the method of use is not the same, one of ordinary skill in this art would have recognized at the time the claimed invention was made that the ethanolamine compounds are suitable ammonium sources in order to have antimicrobial effects, for example.

No claim is allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
